

The Church of England
Diocese of Ely

Whistleblowing Advice

Have you got concerns about someone's safety?

Are you worried about speaking up?

Clergy, lay staff and volunteers are encouraged to raise concerns where:

- the law may have been broken
- Diocesan policies and procedures may have been breached
- there are concerns of a safeguarding nature

Clergy, lay staff and volunteers should initially raise any concerns with the most relevant of the following vicar, line manager, volunteer co-ordinator, Parish Safeguarding Officer, Archdeacon or Bishop.

Alternatively, clergy, lay staff and volunteers may contact the Diocesan Secretary, Paul Evans, by email at paul.evans@elydiocese.org or by telephone on 01353 652702.

If the concern is related to Safeguarding, please contact the Safeguarding Team on 01353 652747

You can read the Diocese of Ely's Whistleblowing Policy on the Diocese of Ely website (just use the website search bar and search for 'Whistleblowing').

Protect - Independent, free, expert whistleblowing advice

Independent, free, expert help and advice in relation to whistleblowing is also available from Protect.

You can contact Protect on 0207 31172520 or by email at whistle@protect-advice.org.uk